

“Laura helped me to find my current house this Spring. She always had great suggestions, was very organized and efficient, seemed unflappable and enabled me to find the perfect house. Neither waist-deep snow nor freezing temperatures would stop her whenever I had time to look at houses.

If you are selling in Northern VA, I cannot think of anyone better with whom to list your house, nor have I ever worked with a realtor more willing to go the second mile to find exactly what I was looking for.”
